The Shield

"From Strength to Strength"

THE ANNIE WRIGHT SEMINARY
TACOMA WASHINGTON
1953

No man hath walked along our roads with step so active, so inquiring eye, or tongue
so varied in discourse.

WALTER SAVAGE LANDOR

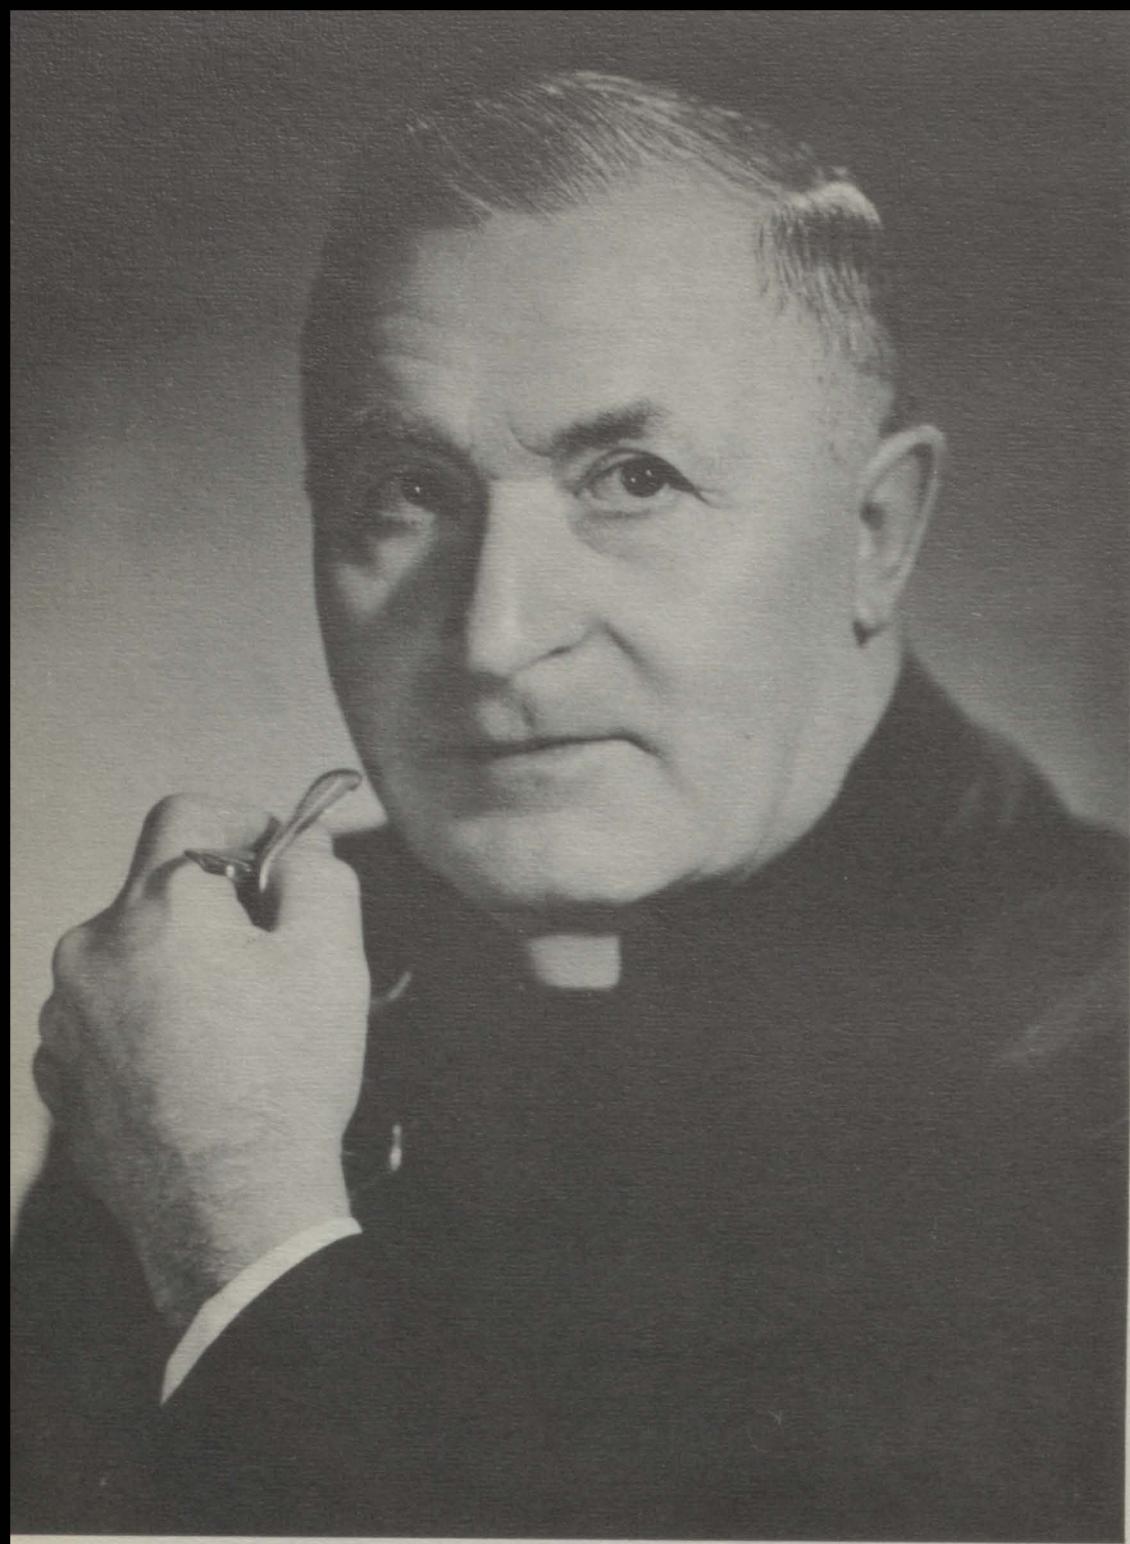

MRS. MARGOT SEELEY

DEDICATION

To you, Mrs. Seeley, for your cheerful enthusiasm, your creative inspiration, for your awe-inspiring patience, for your helpfulness with paint-daubed hands in all our projects, we dedicate this SHIELD, hoping that you will remember us as we always remember you.

THE CLASS OF '53.

THE REV. CANON ARTHUR BELL, D. D.

Beginning each day with you, Canon Bell, has taught us to feel at home with God. Being refreshed by an awareness of your honesty and directness has made us aware of the kind of people we would like to be, and of the close meaning that such hackneyed words as "love" and "sincerity" can have in our lives. Next year our school will miss the warmth of your presence. This year the Senior Class is proud to graduate with you.

Seldom can the heart be lonely,
If it seek a lonelier still;
Self - forgetting, seeking only
Emptier cups of love to fill.

SENIORS

The Stars . . . yellow ties and white sweaters . . . Louise Schafer, Derry Ann Moritz and Betty Lou Ervin, president, vice president and secretary-treasurer, respectively . . . "We've found the Spade, and history we've made!" . . . "Christmas In Faraway Lands" theme of Christmas Carnival, Renee Bordeaux, chairman . . . those college boards! . . . lovely May Queen, Erin Lombard . . . school and class spirit . . . Miss Jenkins and Miss Bogrette, advisers.

Dear Miss Jenkins:

Ten years ago in caps and gowns, with tears we did depart.
'Twas '53, a brand new world, where we could make a start.
And now that many years have passed and each has gone her way,
We write to tell you what's become of us since that great day:

Renee Bordeaux just took her place:
First girl to win the Gold Cup Race!
From all land travel she'll abstain.
The Eddy Arcaro of the hydroplane.

Sheila Bush, our literary lass,
Just wrote a book which none surpass.
In her penthouse, hundredth floor,
Her fans surround her, fame galore.

And Norma Cass will marry soon;
Behind her, many hearts are strewn.
The men adore her, she has charm!
When she comes near, girls, take alarm!

The D'Oyly Carte Operatic group
Has Jane Child starring in their troupe.
La Traviata's next, and Jane
Will sing the lead with little strain.

Barbara C. has thought and planned
To make Tacoma's odor grand.
'Twill be but one accomplishment
Of Christy—this girl can invent!!

Diane Church in the U. N.
Was an interpreter and then
She wed with glee a French Premier
And now scrubs trop de diapiere!

Lynne Goldberg last year settled down.
You'll not see this girl wear a frown!
With house to clean and meals to get,
She's busy, happy—sans regrette!

Among the fashion stars today
Is Sharon Conner. Millions cater to her fancy knitted wear:
The answer's here to Dagmar's prayer.

Our Hawaiian gal at last made good.
And where she makes her livelihood?
Is on Broadway. We all are proud,
As Molly draws the largest crowd.

Because she fits the role so well,
Our Emmy is a Follies belle.
She's world renowned for face and form,
And soon will take T. V. by storm.

And Blenda finally reached the height;
She's New York's favorite socialite.
The handsome crew which mans her yacht
Consists of Peck, Lamas and Scott.

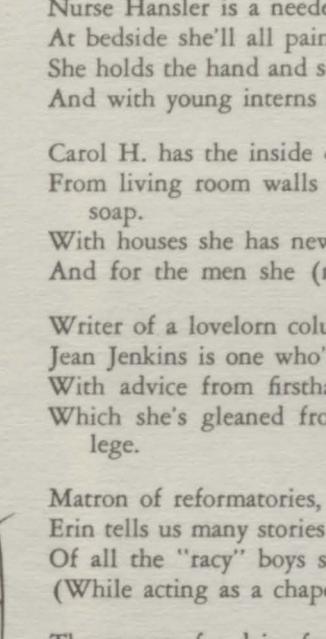

Inside her igloo, snug and—warm?
Is Betty Lou. Her school of charm
Is quite sensational up there.
She's glamorized many a polar bear.

Dr. Ferris, slender, slim,
Advises "blimps" on keeping trim.
Her diets aid in losing weight.
(Of course she'd NEVER demonstrate).

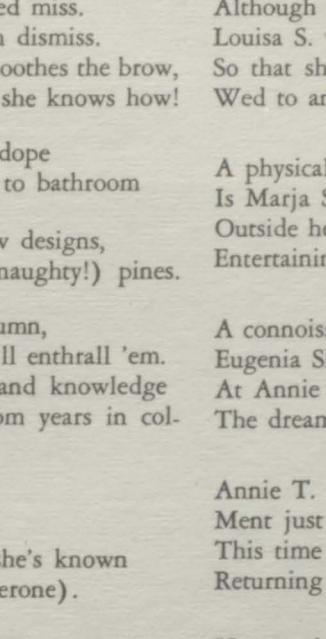

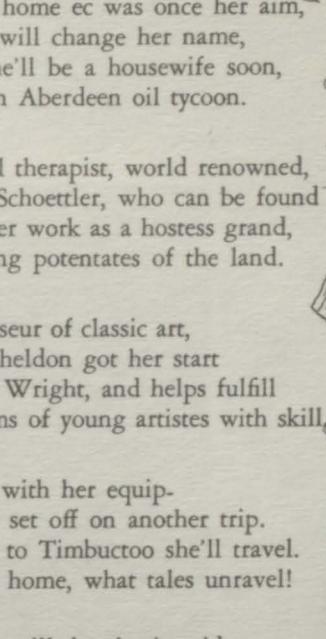

Nurse Hansler is a needed miss,
At bedside she'll all pain dismiss.
She holds the hand and soothes the brow,
And with young interns she knows how!

Carol H. has the inside dope
From living room walls to bathroom soap.
With houses she has new designs,
And for the men she (naughty!) pines.

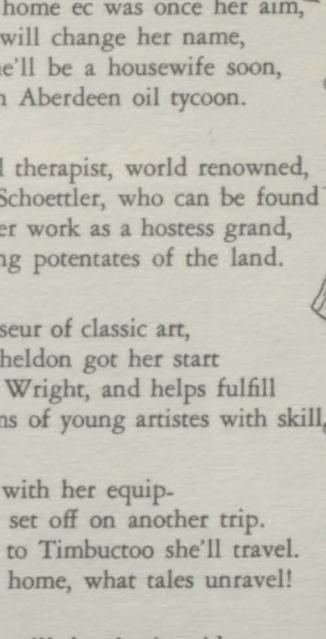

Writer of a lovelorn column,
Jean Jenkins is one who'll enthrall 'em.
With advice from firsthand knowledge
Which she's gleaned from years in college.

Matron of reformatories,
Erin tells us many stories
Of all the "racy" boys she's known
(While acting as a chaperone).

The owner of a dairy farm:
Who else but Moritz? Her cows have charm.
They also ski—that's what's expected.
For this our Derry's most respected.

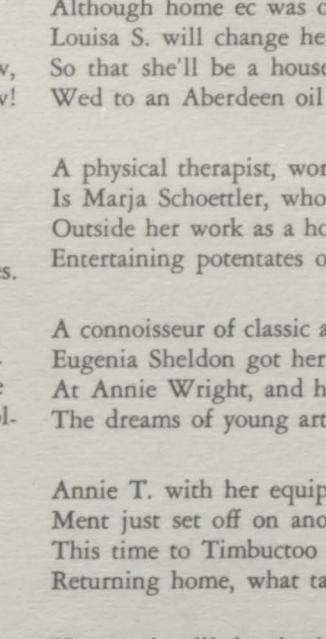

Madalyn Rathbun, a protege
Of Albert E. (and Miss McKay),
Has shocked the nuclear fission fans
By her latest $'x' bomb plans.

A buyer of the latest fashion,
Leonna S. is really dashin'.
She picks from Paris mannequins
The latest styles for Siamese twins.

And now, Miss Jenkins, having told you all there is to tell
Each girl, with mem'ries all her own of you, we say "farewell!"

DERRY MORITZ AND MERRILL WAGNER.

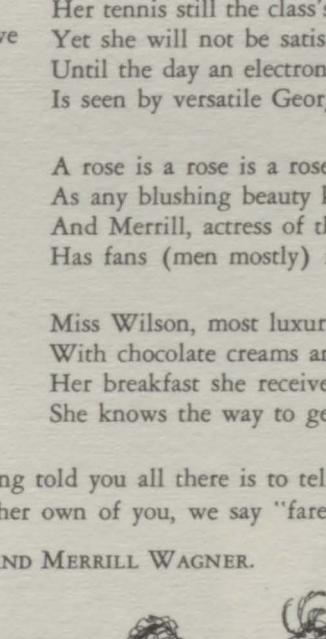

Although home ec was once her aim,
Louisa S. will change her name,
So that she'll be a housewife soon,
Wed to an Aberdeen oil tycoon.

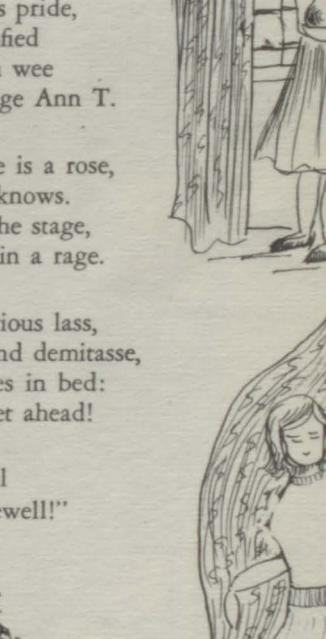

A physical therapist, world renowned,
Is Marja Schoettler, who can be found
Outside her work as a hostess grand,
Entertaining potentates of the land.

A connoisseur of classic art,
Eugenia Sheldon got her start
At Annie Wright, and helps fulfill
The dreams of young artistes with skill.

Annie T. with her equipment just set off on another trip.
This time to Timbuctoo she'll travel.
Returning home, what tales unravel!

Her tennis still the class's pride,
Yet she will not be satisfied
Until the day an electron wee
Is seen by versatile George Ann T.

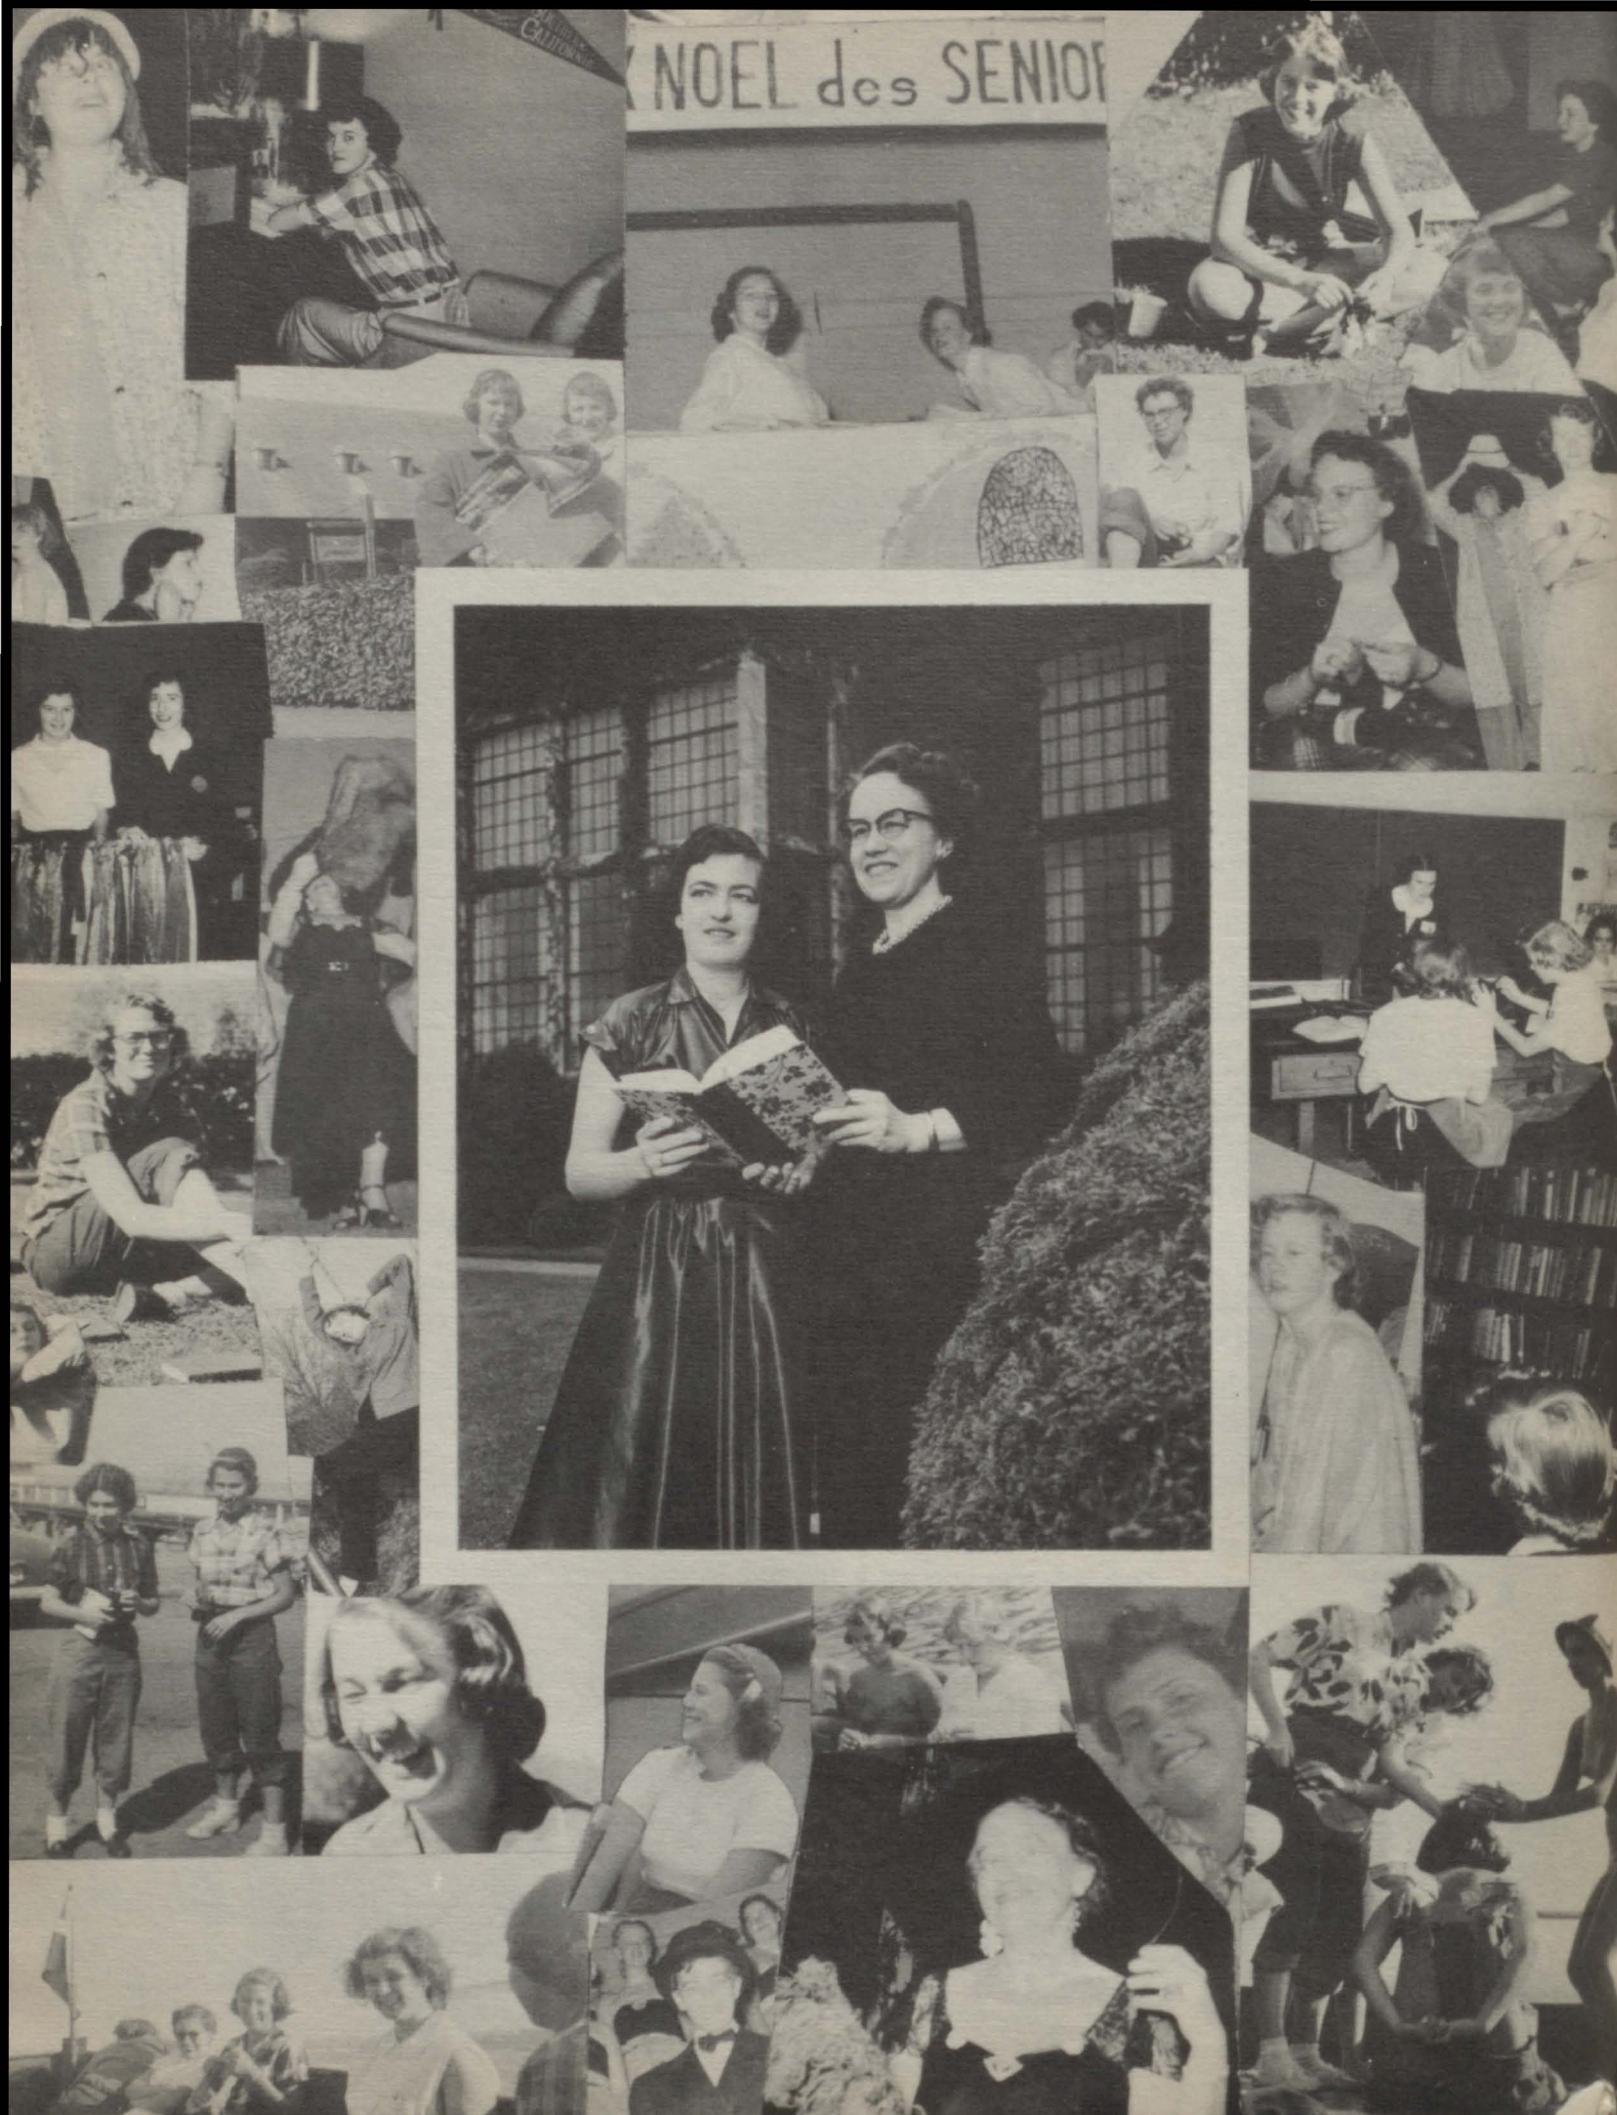

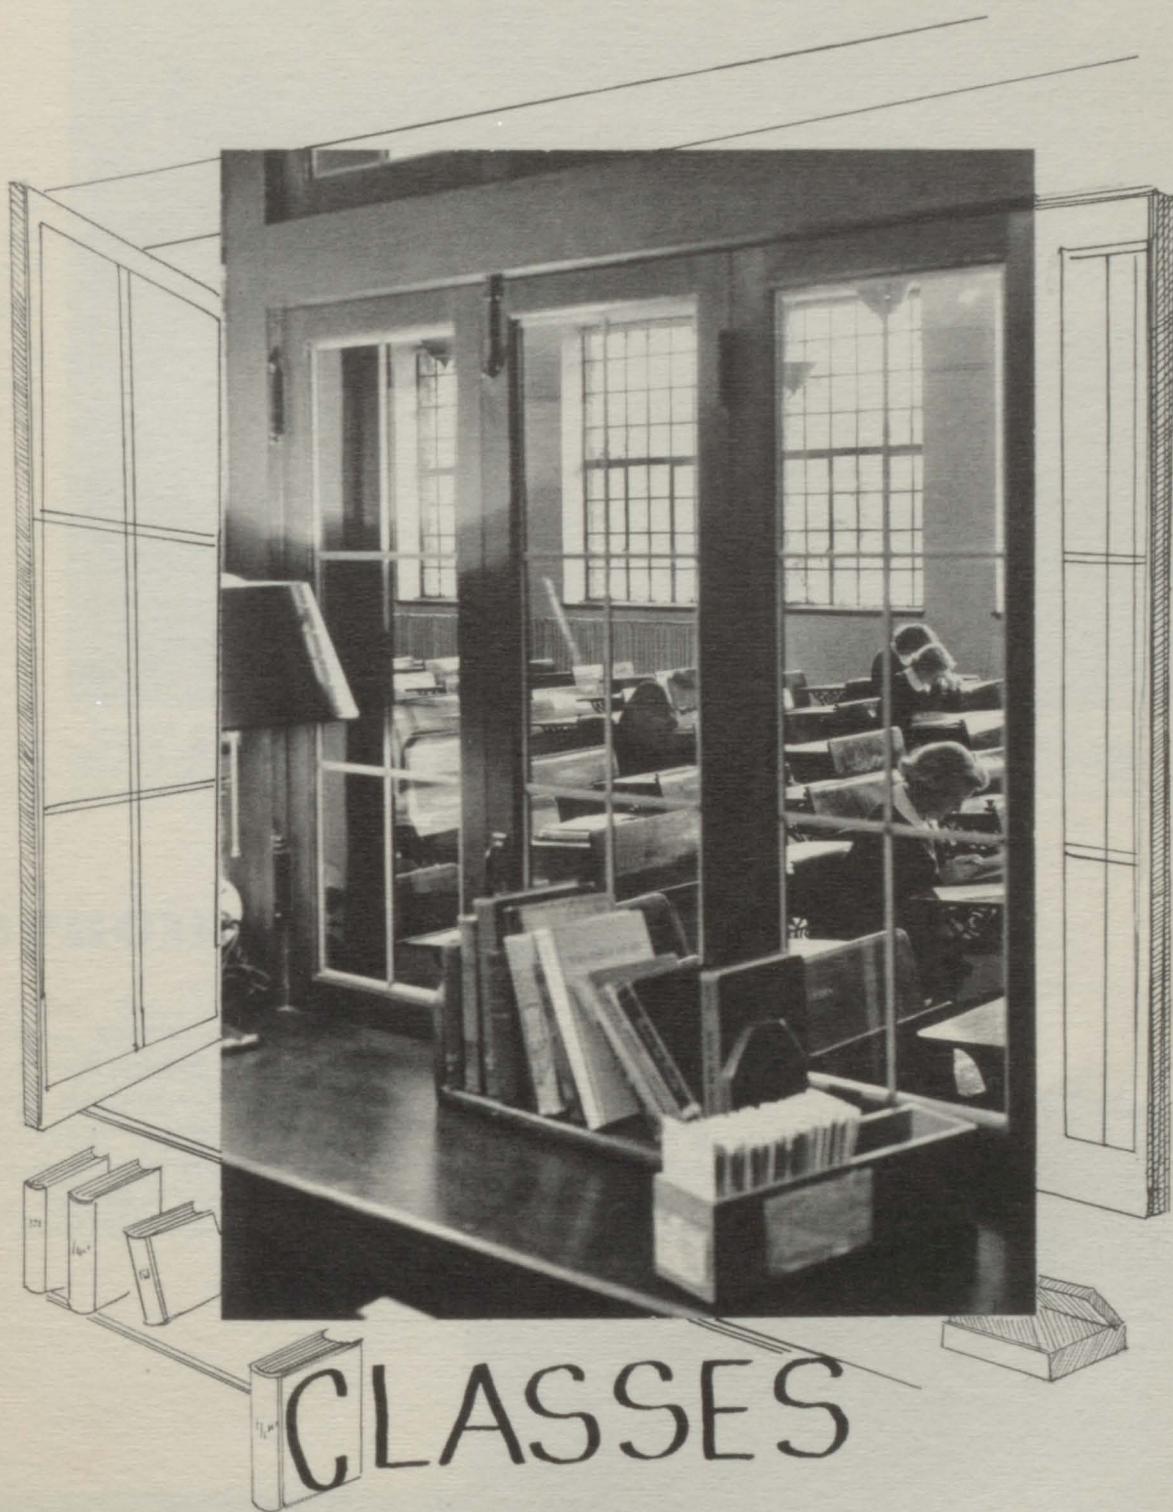

A rose is a rose is a rose is a rose,
As any blushing beauty knows.
And Merrill, actress of the stage,
Has fans (men mostly) in a rage.

Miss Wilson, most luxurious lass,
With chocolate creams and demitasse,
Her breakfast she receives in bed:
She knows the way to get ahead!

[They] . . . have no superfluous leisure.

MAY DAY

This May Day has been a fitting symbol of the colorful and glad-hearted pageantry that marks our goodbyes to this beloved Sem. The days have caught us up and whirled us through a graduation that we'll remember always for the intensified fervor of our devotion and love, at the moment of our leaving. Now they've left us high and dry; we are alumnae.

THE SENIORS.

ANNUAL AWARDS BANQUET:

The Athletic Association gathered for a formal dinner and the presentation of awards to end the day's festivities.

This year's Queen Erin reigned graciously in keeping with the spirit of May.

The traditional May Pole dance, harking back to popular fiestas of earlier days, was presented according to custom, by the third class.

Alma Mater

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Seminary fair;
May achievements crown thy labors
Is our earnest prayer.

Deep and true as those blue waters
Thou art reared above,
May the characters thou moldest
Hold thee in their love.

Pure as yonder snow-clad mountains
Where our glances fall,
May we in the years to follow,
Answer to thy call.

Chorus . . . Hearts turned toward our Alma Mater,
May our lives at length
Prove thy daughters bear thy motto,
"On from strength to strength."
